Welcome To The Morganton Point Recreation Area!

There is one developed campground located on the shoreline of Blue Ridge Lake, a 3,290 acre Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) reservoir, near the town of Blue Ridge, GA. Blue Ridge Lake offers camping, picnicking, hiking, boating, skiing and fishing. The lake is home to bass, bream, catfish, perch and crappie, which make the area popular with anglers.

The Morganton Point Recreation Area consists of 43 camping sites, which includes 2 double sites and 7 tent walk-in sites. The upper loop is available for tent and RV camping and offers 17 sites on a first-come, first-served basis. Tent walk-in sites A-F are available on a first-come, first-served basis. The lower loop offers 20 campsites available for tent and RV camping and is available for reservations through the National Recreation Reservation Service (NRRS) by calling 1-877-444-6777 or visiting www.Recreation.gov. Sites 9 and 13 are double sites and site 11 tent walk-in. The 20 sites have water hook-ups at each site, except 11 & 14. All sites feature a tent pad, grill, lantern post and picnic table. Electrical hookups available at some sites.

A day use area is available for those looking to picnic, swim, fish or boat along Blue Ridge Lake. Morganton Point includes 8 picnic sites, one picnic shelter, a designated swimming area with a bath house, and paved boat launch.

Rules & Regulations

Rules and regulations are designed to permit all users of the area to get maximum enjoyment from the facility without damage to the environment or disturbing other users. Please keep these points in mind during your stay with us:
